Don't forget to bring your thoughts and comments about Don Clifford's story. Now YOU get to be the editor! Don will discuss the comments and suggested edits that he has received and will go on to discuss how to self-edit your work

Last Meeting

Have you eaten in a restaurant during the past month? Did Eileen's thoughts about writing a restaurant review come to mind? Now, where can you publish?

Thanks, Eileen!

Don Clifford presented a challenge: Edit his story. If you didn't get a copy, it's on our website <http://www.rgvbyliners.org>

Visit our web site at www.rgvbyliners.org. Be sure to update your information.

Byliners' meetings are at 1:30 PM on the second Saturday of each month at the Harlingen Public Library
