
RIO GRANDE VALLEY

BYLINERS

Next Meeting:

Saturday, November 12 at 1:30 PM

Harlingen Public Library

This meeting

Our speaker will be Elizabeth Martinez, editor of the Business Times of the Valley. Elizabeth will talk about what an editor expects from you as a writer and what you can expect from an editor. She will cover deadlines, style (yours and the publication) and help us learn how to work with an editor to produce a publishable product, including how to cope with re-writing.

Yes, we all know our words and paragraphs are magic, but they CAN be improved. That's what editors do. They bring out your best.

Eileen will give us details of the December Christmas Party!

Last Meeting

Don Clifford led members through an exercise in editing his essay.. I missed it but understand it was a good experience.

Thanks, Don

Schedule of upcoming events

October was busy!

Friends of the Library had to cancel the October 10th event at the last minute when publicity appeared with the wrong date. We'll re-schedule for December. Apologies to those who showed up to find us locked out.

Several members met and read for the 1230 club on the 12th..

Four Byliners traveled to Brownsville to read at the Fine Arts Museum.

Quite a few Byliners read excerpts from their stories for Mario Munoz on the 30th, then he played them on the air on KMBH on the 31st. Thanks, Mario!

November

Nothing in the schedule yet. Please let me know if you schedule an event.

Visit our web site at www.rgvbyliners.org. Be sure to update your information.

Byliners' meetings are at 1:30 PM on the second Saturday of each month at the Harlingen Public Library
